SOCIAL AND POLITICAL AWARENESS CLUB (SPAC)

The Social and Political Awareness Club seeks to develop an awareness of pertinent issues in politics, including international, national, regional, state, and local politics and policies. Through lectures, films, panel discussions, informal presentations, debates, and social interaction among members, SPAC functions as a comprehensive forum that interested students can use to further understanding and dialogue concerning current events. The club will also act as a debating society where members will be permitted to discuss issues of politics and political science in the elaboration and with individuals who may possess differing opinions and ideologies.

Vision:

To empower students to serve communities, meet the practical solution to the social problems faced by the country and to promote peace through the club.

Mission:

The Social and Political Awareness Club was established with the purpose of creating a common ground of free association, involvement, and deliberation for the students of the all sections of the Universal College.

Objectives:

- To foster awareness about issues, present in the political arena and relevant especially to the student body, but also to society at large. In pursuit of this objective, the SPAC organizes formal debates, brings in speakers and otherwise tries to focus on issues and events that matter.
- to engage in service activities that enhance the quality of life on campus and in the community.

Some activities that are planned for the SPAC are:

- Women Safety awareness program
- Civilian rights and duties campaigning
- Voter registration drives
- Mock Parliament
- Independence and Republic Day celebrations
